

WEDDING RULES & POLICIES

Thank You for choosing our family farmstead as your venue for your very special day. Our intent for you, your family and friends are for you to enjoy your wedding at Ivy Jean's with the greatest of honor, integrity, respect, fun and happiness. We want to help you create Memories to remember fondly. To insure this for all involved, we the owners, expect Respectful behavior at all times. Disorderly conduct, disputes verbal or physical, drunkenness or intoxicated behavior will NOT be tolerated. We are a Christian and law enforcement friendly family who lives on the property.

Do not go beyond any gates or fences for any reason.

Do not feed the animals or present any part of your body to the animals at all. Look and enjoy with your eyes only.

Quiet hours are 10:00pm- 8:00am All guest, except registered overnight guest, depart the property by 10:30 pm each evening and can return the next morning after 7:00 am.

For guest safety and all area considerations these quiet hours and rules are strictly enforced.

Any unauthorized overnight guest will forfeit the deposit plus additional fee of $100 per person.

No Pets of any kind allowed. Certified/Registered Service dogs with proper papers only. NO Emotional Support animals of any kind allowed. An additional cleaning fee of $125 per service animal required prior to stay.

Non-smoking and Non-Vaping: All of our buildings and property are non-smoking and non-vaping. However, for those who are in the process of quitting, one smoking area is designated outside the building out by the entrance gate, this is the only place on property to be used any time a person smokes.